OBJETIVOS

English Dexway Certificate - Level B1 - Course 2 provides students with the necessary tools to communicate and handle the main structures of the language with some confidence and demonstrate knowledge of a wide range of vocabulary and use of the appropriate communicative strategies in a variety of social situations. This course contains speaking and writing assignments.

Once the course has finished students can understand the main ideas of complex texts on both concrete and abstract topics, including technical discussions in his/her field of specialisation. They can also interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible without strain for either party. Students can produce clear, detailed texts on a wide range of subjects and explain a viewpoint on a topical issue.

Throughout the course students learn to talk about habitual actions and actions in progress, to express tastes, likes and dislikes and converse about jobs and free time. They study how to narrate, express habitual actions in the past, describe houses, talk about the recent past and about tourism and travelling. Students learn to express movement and intentions, arrange an appointment, make plans and predictions, talk about films and TV programmes, give and receive permission, express obligation, lack of obligation, prohibition, possibility give advice and talk about domestic chores.

Vocabulary studied through the course includes: topics such work and leisure, games and sports, relatives, house description, trips and tourism, experiences, pastimes, excursions and trips, films and television programmes, competitions and contests, medicine and hospitals, feelings, climate, jobs and employment, work conditions, stressfree life, amongst others.

Students practice all the language abilities: writing, speaking, listening and reading through a series of interactive and contextualised exercises. They learn through tasks such as real-life dialogues, word/sentence – picture association and video dubbing exercises. The last lesson of each unit has some test exercises so that students are aware of their progress.

In this lesson, the student will revise vocabulary they have been learning in the previous lessons and will be introduced to new vocabulary. For example: hundred, tennis, brogue, etc.

The press - Additional vocabulary

This lesson provides students with additional materials to expand their knowledge of vocabulary on the subject of the press. Vocabulary is presented in context and there are follow-up exercises that provide extended practice.

When I became a journalist... - Reading comprehension

In this lesson, students read a written passage of text about a journalist's experience in a hostage situation. The text is followed by questions in a sequential order that elicit students' skills on active reading. Readers are asked to peruse the passage for the general meaning, particular details, and logical inferences.

Self-Reflection - Speaking assignment

In this lesson:

- Learners record a short audio saying if the statement in the picture is TRUE or FALSE about them.

Personality - Writing assignment

In this lesson:

- Learners submit a short text describing the personalities of three people they know, providing evidence for each.

Test exercises

In the last lesson of this unit, students find a variety of exercises carefully chosen to consolidate and evaluate the language skills acquired in previous lessons.

Unit 12

You are only young once, mum!

Aims: To review and consolidate the grammar, as well as the structures and vocabulary covered in the past block, through a series of interactive revision exercises.

Activities: Listen and choose the correct ending, pronunciation practice, and a real-life dialogue to dub.

Welcome to university

Aims: To review and consolidate the grammar, as well as the structures and vocabulary covered in the past block, through a series of interactive revision exercises.

Activities: Write the correct place in response to the statements in a reading and listening comprehension exercise, reading comprehension with short answers, error detection and correction, complete the text with an appropriate word, and fill the gaps by writing the verb in the correct tense.

I'm afraid I have to complain

Aims: To review and consolidate the grammar, as well as the structures and vocabulary covered in the past block, through a series of interactive revision exercises.

Activities: True or false listening comprehension, listening and writing practice with a spelling exercise, and also an exercise on definitions where the learner provides the correct word by arranging the letters.

Good to be alive - Typical situation

A practical immersion in the language, whereby students will live through a real-life situation, similar to one they would confront in the context of the language they are learning. In this typical situation, students will listen to the experiences of a couple who are on holiday. In order to achieve this successfully, students will be introduced to new vocabulary, and then they will have the opportunity to listen to the conversation using the vocabulary they have learnt and repeat the dialogue. After that, students will receive feedback on their pronunciation.

We've made it to the van - Typical situation

A practical immersion in the language, whereby students will live through a real-life situation, similar to one they would confront in the context of the language they are learning. In this typical situation, students will listen to the experiences of a couple who are on holiday. In order to achieve this successfully, students will be introduced to new vocabulary, and then they will have the opportunity to listen to the conversation using the vocabulary they have learnt and repeat the dialogue. After that, students will receive feedback on their pronunciation.

People, passports, planet - Dialogue

The student will listen to a series of questions which they can answer freely. In this lesson, new vocabulary will be introduced. Once the lesson has finished, the student will then be able to practice with this same new vocabulary.

Barbados - Reading

In this lesson, students read and listen to a written passage of text on Barbados and then answer a series of questions. These questions follow a sequential order and elicit students' skills on active reading. Readers are asked to peruse the passage for the general meaning, particular details, and logical inferences. The suggested activities comprise multiple-choice and true/false questions, as well as matching statements with their corresponding sections. By practicing active and effective reading, students acquire strong cognitive skills such as attention, auditory analysis, sound blending, sound segmenting, memory, processing speed, and visualization.

Barbados - Dictation

In this lesson, students have to follow the dictation of a text on Barbados. Students practice, first and foremost, their listening and writing skills, and within the latter, a range of sub-skills from spelling to punctuation. Moreover, this dictation makes students practice and enhance their vocabulary, syntax, grammar, and, when reviewing their work, proofreading. The written passage of text has been divided into different phrases or sentences, and it is listened to by the student, who has to write it. Students can listen to the phrase or sentence as many times as they wish and even ask for help if needed. Once a paragraph has been completed, students re-read it while listening to the audio and move on to the next paragraph.

Means of transport - Speaking assignment

In this activity, the student must record an oral summary of a written text as well as give a personal opinion about the topic. He/she will read the text to grasp the main ideas about means of transport and will elicit a short summary followed by an opinion about the topic. Along this oral exercise, the student can practice and improve pronunciation and fluency, as well as review vocabulary and grammar when preparing the activity and improvise accurate solutions during the recording.

Unexpected - Writing assignment

In this lesson:

- Learners write a paragraph about a time when they had an emergency while travelling.

Test exercises

In the last lesson of this unit, students find a variety of exercises carefully chosen to consolidate and evaluate the language skills acquired in previous lessons.

Course revision

Final test

In this last lesson of the course, and as a way to revise, the student will come across a variety of exercises that will help consolidate and evaluate any knowledge that has been acquired throughout the duration of the course.
