learning.

Typical Situation: Two Friends Talking About Car Insurance

Students will listen to or read a realistic dialogue between two friends discussing car insurance. This exercise helps students practice their listening and comprehension skills while exposing them to practical uses of insurance vocabulary.

Dialogue: Taking Risks and Accidents

Students will respond verbally to a series of questions related to insurance and risks. They are encouraged to use vocabulary studied in previous and current lessons, promoting active recall and language production.

Consolidation

This activity is designed to further reinforce vocabulary understanding. Through a variety of interactive methods, students will review and practice all vocabulary from the unit, continuing to develop their language skills.

Additional Exercises

To solidify understanding of definitions and concepts learned in the course, students will complete various exercises, including:

- Word scrambles
- Multiple choice questions
- Fill-in-the-blank activities

These exercises help ensure mastery of the material and prepare students for real-world application.

End of Unit Summary:

By the end of this unit, students will have a stronger grasp of intermediate insurance vocabulary and be able to use these terms confidently in conversation and writing.
