Insurances - Taking Risks

Unit Overview

In this unit, students will continue to expand their vocabulary with intermediate insurancerelated terms. The unit emphasizes frequent pronunciation practice and picture association to reinforce vocabulary learning. Activities include realistic dialogues, error detection and correction, assignments sent to a tutor, and freeform speaking exercises to encourage students to use new vocabulary and express themselves confidently.

Insurance Vocabulary

The second part of the course introduces more intermediate vocabulary within the context of insurance. Key terms include:

- Coinsurance
- Compensation
- Death benefit
- Stop loss
- Elimination period

These terms are presented through both written and spoken exercises to help solidify understanding. Vocabulary meanings and example sentences are provided to enhance learning.

Typical Situation: Two Friends Talking About Car Insurance

Students will listen to or read a realistic dialogue between two friends discussing car insurance. This exercise helps students practice their listening and comprehension skills while exposing them to practical uses of insurance vocabulary.

Dialogue: Taking Risks and Accidents

Students will respond verbally to a series of questions related to insurance and risks. They are encouraged to use vocabulary studied in previous and current lessons, promoting active recall and language production.

Consolidation

This activity is designed to further reinforce vocabulary understanding. Through a variety of interactive methods, students will review and practice all vocabulary from the unit, continuing to develop their language skills.

Additional Exercises

To solidify understanding of definitions and concepts learned in the course, students will complete various exercises, including:

- Word scrambles
- Multiple choice questions
- Fill-in-the-blank activities

These exercises help ensure mastery of the material and prepare students for real-world application.

End of Unit Summary:

By the end of this unit, students will have a stronger grasp of intermediate insurance vocabulary and be able to use these terms confidently in conversation and writing.
