

AI English: Bars and Restaurants

Sku: PC489

Horas: 30

OBJETIVOS

- Give learners the tools to be able to understand what clients ask for and name what is on the menú
- Greet people,
- Ask about and understand what customers would like,
- As well as to resolve the complaints that might occur in hospitality settings appropriately.

CONTENIDOS

Unit 1

In this lesson learners watch a series of videos which present vocabulary on the topic of food.

1.1 Restaurants-Meals, Food and Fish / Fruit and Vegetables

After this lesson, the learner will be able to: recognise and name common products on the menu at a restaurant, complete written exercises that demonstrate they are capable of matching the written forms of the vocabulary to the sounds and images that correspond to them.

1.2 Restaurants - Drinks and Dessert / Asking and Ordering

After this lesson, the learner will be able to: recognise and name common drinks and desserts on the menu at a restaurant, take orders and answer the clients' questions about what is on the menu, complete written exercises that demonstrate they are capable of matching the written forms of the vocabulary to the sounds and images that correspond to them.

1.3 Writing assignment - What's in your refrigerator?

In this lesson learners will use quantifiers to write about the things they have in their fridge.

Speaking assignment - Traditional Dishes

In this lesson learners will talk about some traditional food from their country or region.

1.4 Pronunciation assignment - Instructions

In this lesson learners will give some simple instructions.

1.5 Role-play: Taking an order

In this lesson learners will play the part of a waiter who takes an order in a restaurant.

Unit 2

2.1 Restaurant reviews

In this lesson learners watch a video with examples of ways to describe a restaurant experience using past tenses.

2.2 Restaurants - Complaining / Useful Expressions

After this lesson, the learner will be able to: give explanations, describe different dishes on the menu and solve problems by acting professionally and order written expressions common in conversations that provide professional service.

2.3 Restaurants - Typical situation - Service in the restaurant business

A practical immersion in the language, where by the student will live through a real life situation, similar to one they would confront in the language in which they are learning. In this lesson the student will be introduced to new vocabulary, then once the exercise has been completed, they will then have an opportunity to do some practice with this same new vocabulary.

2.4 Writing assignment - A memorable meal

In this lesson learners use past tenses to describe a meal they remember.

2.5 Speaking assignment - Favourite food

In this lesson learners talk about the food they like.

2.6 Pronunciation assignment - The best and the worst

In this lesson learners record themselves reading a text.

2.7 Role-play: Complaints and apologies

In this lesson learners play the part of a customer who wants to complain about their experience at a restaurant.

Unit 3

3.1 Describing food

In this lesson learners watch a video which presents useful adjectives to describe food in detail.

3.2 Restaurants - Dialogue - The perfect menu

The student will listen to a series of questions which they can then answer freely by sending their answers to a teacher, on-line. In this lesson new vocabulary will be introduced. Once the lesson has finished, the student will then be able to have some practice with this same new vocabulary.

3.3 Restaurants - Consolidation

After this lesson, the learner will be able to give explanations, describe products, deal with problems and act professionally, order expressions common in conversations that provide professional service and complete written exercises that demonstrate they are capable of matching the written forms of designs to the sounds and images that correspond to them.

3.4 Writing assignment - Menu

In this lesson learners design a menu.

3.5 Speaking assignment - Ordering food

In this lesson learners practise ordering food in a restaurant.

3.6 Pronunciation assignment - The perfect menu

In this lesson learners record themselves reading a text.

3.7 Role-play: Food vocabulary

In this lesson learners take turns to guess words or give clues about the vocabulary from this unit.

Unit 4

4.1 Bar vocabulary

In this lesson learners watch a video with some of the most typical vocabulary and expressions used in a bar.

4.2 Bars - Bars and employees

On successfully completing this lesson the learner will be able to give basic information about the service they give and the principal responsibilities and duties bar-workers carry out. The learner will also be able to ask about and understand what the customer desires appropriately and carry out their instructions.

4.3 Bars - Bar tools

On successfully completing this lesson the learner will be able to give basic information about the service they give and the principal responsibilities and duties bar-workers carry out. The learner will also be able to ask and understand what the customer desires appropriately and carry out their instructions.

4.4 Writing assignment - Types of bar

In this lesson learners write about two types of bar.

4.5 Speaking assignment - My Favourite place

In this lesson learners talk about their favourite place to go for a drink.

4.6 Pronunciation assignment - A shift at the bar

In this lesson learners record themselves reading a text.

4.7 Role-play: Bar tools

In this lesson learners take turns to guess words or give clues about the vocabulary from this unit.

Unit 5

5.1 Describing drinks

In this lesson learners watch a video and learn some vocabulary to describe a range of different drinks.

5.2 Bars - Menu and glasses

On successfully completing this lesson the learner will be able to give basic information about the service they give and the principal responsibilities and duties bar-workers carry out. The learner will also be able to ask and understand what the customer desires appropriately and carry out their instructions and be able distinguish between and say what drinks are the most popular at different times of the day.

5.3 Bars - On the menu

On successfully completing this lesson the learner will be able to give basic information about the service they give and the principal responsibilities and duties bar-workers carry out. The learner will be able to ask and understand what the customer desires appropriately and carry out their instructions.

5.4 Writing assignment - Definitions

In this lesson learners write definitions for some common bar vocabulary.

5.5 Speaking assignment - Picture description

In this lesson learners describe a picture of a bar using some given words.

5.6 Pronunciation assignment - Bartender

In this lesson learners record themselves reading a text.

5.7 Role-play: Journalist

In this lesson learners play the part of a journalist who is interviewing the owner of a bar.

Unit 6

6.1 Dealing with problems

In this lesson learners watch videos with examples of problems that can occur in a hospitality setting.

6.2 Bars - Typical situation - Bar customer service

A practical immersion in the language, where by the student will live through a real life situation, similar to one they would confront in the language in which they are learning. In this lesson the student will be introduced to new vocabulary, then once the exercise has been completed, they will then have an opportunity to do some practice with this same new vocabulary.

6.3 Bars - Dialogue - The perfect refreshment

The student will listen to a series of questions which they can then answer freely by sending their answers to a teacher, on-line. In this lesson new vocabulary will be introduced. Once the lesson has finished, the student will then be able to have some practice with this same new vocabulary.

6.4 Bars - Consolidation

On successfully completing this lesson the learner will have demonstrated they are familiar with the vocabulary in the situations practised in previous units and are able to use the vocabulary of the previous lessons in familiar ways:

- To understand and take part in basic conversations that recycle and consolidate the vocabulary of the unit.
- To distinguish between images and spell the names of what they see correctly.
- To reflect on the progress the learner has made as she/he completes the lesson and receives feedback on their intonation and stress.
- To give basic information about what customers want as part of the service they give explain the principal responsibilities and duties bar-workers carry out. The learner will be able to ask and understand what the customer desires appropriately and carry out their instructions.

6.5 Writing assignment - Interview questions

In this lesson learners write a series of questions to ask a bar owner.

6.6 Speaking assignment - Answer the questions

In this lesson learners record themselves answering a series of questions.

6.7 Pronunciation assignment - Where to go

In this lesson learners record themselves reading a text.

6.8 Role-play: Bar manager

In this lesson learners play the part of a manager in a bar